

COURSE SYNOPSIS

Managing Shutdown, Turnaround & Outage Events

duration flexible

Learn how to successfully manage these very interesting and demanding situations. This course will prepare you for the specialised role of STO planning.

Prerequisite Experience/Knowledge Required

You must have, as a minimum:

Adequate Practical Experience

OR

1-2 years Primavera planning experience

or

have successfully completed the Projects & Resources course

or

have a good understanding of Global, EPS, Project Activity Coding Structures and WBS Structures.

Knowledge of CWBS would be useful but is not essential.

Summarised Course Content

- Basic principles of STO planning
- Various types of shutdown
- Basic principles of the plan, its creation, maintenance & updating
- Scope
- Metrics - appropriate and inappropriate
- Workpacks
- Formatting the plan
- Procedures
- Reporting
- Considering the importance of risk to the successful STO
- The importance of the cost element
- Enhancing your planning skills and introducing new ones

Who should attend?

- STO Planners who realise the importance of keeping their skills up to date
- Planners who realise the career benefits of learning about STO planning